All rights reserved Back to top. The problem I am running into is that my camera movements are linear in nature Is there a way to script CE in so that the first time I press the hotkey my camera it moves X units.. Press question mark to learn the rest of the keyboard shortcuts Log in sign up User account menu 3 Adding some automation to CE hotkeys possible.. Take a screen shot Repeat as needed I do this because the in game camera controls do not give me the precision I need.
